With great pleasure, the Oracles announce that this next Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday evening, Alayne, the Official Storyteller of Kymer, will be sharing more tales of passion and betrayal in the Dreamscape from Morpheus, the Lord of Dreams himself.

Wednesday night (3/20) at 6:00pm WAT, she will re-tell "Morpheus and the Origins of the Dreamscape," for those who might have missed her previous telling or who would like to revisit the gods of this fair realm. If you don't know the Dreamscape mythology, and would like to know more about it, this is the time! The story is approximately one half hour long. Alayne will be answering your questions afterwards.

On Thursday and Friday night (3/21 & 3/22) at 6:00pm WAT, she will tell a two-part story entitled, "Morpheus and Nime." This tale is told in honor of the first couple of Phantasus, Elwing and Earendil. If you enjoy love and the mystery of Dreams, join us both nights for this epic drama of war, jealousy, and Immortal passion. Each night's installment is approximately one hour long.

Both stories will be told in Meditation Park, at the statue of Cupid.

In the Service of Morpheus,

Alayne and the Oracles

>>A NIGHT OF MIRACLES

presented by the Knights of Kymer Poetry and Storytelling Guild by SunRay Kehrey

So often we walk through life forgetting our brothers and sisters who share our love, joy and longing. We forget the miracles, the random acts of kindness that bring us all together. We think we are all separated from one another feeling only what is inside ourselves, not realizing how each one of us is a part of the whole, intertwined and connected.

It is our hope this special sharing will awaken our higher selves, if only for a moment, so that we may glimpse the brilliant light and beauty that shines radiantly within each one of us. Every miracle, every tear, we experience is part of the whole in which we all reside. So come join us on this mystical, magical evening and share a miracle, a mystical poem or enlightening experience.

Your poems or short stories may be originals or by a published author, and they may be written about the dreamscape, waking world, or some other world you may have visited. We welcome all and look forward to this very special event!

Special awards will be presented to those bringing and sharing their most favorite poem or short story - related to the theme of the evening.

>>LETTER TO THE EDITOR

from Artema-Guardian of Kymer

Thank you, Milen, for recognizing me. I didn't know that an Acolyte would be so aware of the doings of ordinary avatars in Kymer. I'm sure that the spirit of your comments will be a real morale-booster for all the avatars who are proud of the groups with which they are affiliated. And, of course, I'm sure you know that your opinions constitute the first, last and only word on any subject upon which you deign to speak.

With all your experience in Kymer, I'm sure you know that it can sometimes take an avatar a long time to fully-develop his identity, and that creative avatars experiment along the way with names, with heads, and with colors. It was pointed out to me some time ago by friends and family members that my chess head made it easy to visually identify me, but that it was often difficult to ESP me. After experimentation and thought, the name that suits me best seems to be "Artema-Guardian of Kymer", which joins my name to the group that I founded, and of which I am very proud. The main reason for the name trouble is because I previously had another account, and I could not have identical names on each. Thank you for assisting me in publicizing the name I have finally chosen, and my reasons for having chosen it.

May Morpheus Bless You! Artema-Guardian of Kymer CompuServe e-mail: 103546,3722

-- Milen replies:

It was not my intent to attack you personally. I was merely attempting to express how difficult it was to get in touch with you at times. In fact my intent was to follow up this issue with more examples; it seems to be a popular pastime in WorldsAway these days to make it nigh-impossible to be ESPed. Unfortunately the deadline was looming and I was unable to include further examples, and in the rush and the confusion (I had been working on the Clarion for a few hours; it's not easy getting stuff laid out *and* formatting it all for 69 columns *and* getting everything organized *and* making corrections, etc.) I didn't notice that it came out looking like a personal attack, and for that I apologize.

Now, speaking to the readership at large I have to say that some of the response to my error was overkill. It was a simple joke that was meant as a nudge in the side, not a stab in the back. I merely made a remark about how difficult it was to ESP someone; not at all grounds for the attacks for which I have been subject. It strikes me that there are many more important things to shout about than some insignificant filler line in a humor piece. I close by saying the same thing I've always said: if you have a problem with something that I've done, talk to me about it first, *please*? I'm busy an awful lot these days but I *can* make time to talk!

***REWARD***

For any information leading to the apprehension of the person or persons who committed an act of vandalism on the impounded body of the CHOKE Machine owned by one Marianne G. The reward, which consists of a written article in the CLARION detailing the bravery and civic mindedness of the informer, is also open for donations to the cause. Any donations made to the CHOKE Criminal Investigation Fund, will be turned over to the person who gives the information leading to the arrest of the vandals. Donations will be taken till the end of April by Marianne G, Acolyte VIQer, Acolyte Milen, Acolyte Serena, Acolyte BLD Stalker and Acolyte Rosaleah. At the end of that time, if no one is caught, the funds will be used to repair the CHOKE Machine, removing the offending 3 Liter Dispenser Opening. All remaining funds collected will then be used to put the memory of the crime behind us by giving it to organizations and individuals who host games in Kymer.

You can help us to decide which organizations/individuals should receive the tokens for hosting by telling us your preferences at the time of the donation. Currently, the ones we are considering include the Helper group, SunRays/Knights, Ghost Racing/CHAOS Inc., Bloodline, and the Duckolytes. If you have other groups in mind who host games, please let us know.

As for the criminals who are out there - YOU KNOW WHO YOU ARE! Turn yourself in now and we will try and keep Marianne G under control.

>>SEEN ON THE STREETS by Rosaleah with Marianne G

We overheard Aslan remarking to Sunny Dee Lite, who was dressed all in bright yellow, that he loves the color yellow. He doesn't think yellow would look good on him, however. A better color for a duck, he opined, was orange ... as in Duck a l'Orange.

Names can sure be confusing sometimes. We were in the clouds at the StarWay Observation Deck when Dekker met Dekkar, who observed that someone named Dekkard was a Phantasus citizen, too. Gotta remember to pay close attention to those ID's, as well as faces and colors!

Marianne G was found outside the dock area in tears. When asked what was wrong, she said her CHOKE Machine had been vandalized! Somehow, along with the regular can dispenser slot, it now had a huge hole in it that was marked as a Three Liter Bottle Dispenser slot. As if, not being able to get Cans of Choke released from impound, we would be able to get 3 Liter bottles from it. Marianne had no idea how she was going to save the tokens to make the neccesary repairs, but she did have a lead on the vandal or vandals. There had been some fur left behind at the scene that she had sent to the lab for analysis.

What well-known couple was seen on the streets recently in heated exchange over food? Is it true a request would be made to the Oracles to lock up the picnic vendo in Meditation Park to prevent anyone from overeating? The good news is, the couple did make up, and it looks like the engagement is still on.

>>THE RETURN OF THE TEDDY by Jadelin

Hello Everyone,

I wanted to share a very wonderful experience I had in WA one recent night.

I'll start from the beginning of the story. Several nights ago, I was playing Kymer. I was holding my Torgersen teddy bear (brown bear). All of a sudden I crashed....got back on...looked....and my teddy bear was gone!!! I was really upset, considering I just spent 1500 T on it a few days before. I looked in my pockets and chests..No teddy to be found anywhere. I was just starting to get used to the idea it was gone forever.

Tonight I got an esp from someone wanting to meet me. Her avatar name was Judy. We met and she explained to me that she was rearranging her items, putting some into her chest when all of a sudden she realized she had two teddy's instead of one!! She remembered she was standing next to me while playing Kymer the night I crashed, and how my bear had disappeared.Somehow my bear went into her pocket during the crash!!! We couldn't believe it!! She then handed me my teddy!!! <S>

I will be forever thankful to Judy and wanted everyone to know what a wonderful, honest and sweet person she is!!! Judy is a shining example of what this world needs more of!!!

Thank you again, Judy!!!!

>>POETRY CORNER

Duckolyte John Whiz and Dream Diana were united in Kymer Matrimony on the 15th. Below is the poem that Dream Diana presented at her wedding.

Dream Diana Dedication-

I would like to dedicate the following poem to all the on-line lovers who, despite distance and heartache, find happiness with their loved one.

"To Understand" By: Diana S. Kirk aka Dream Diana

How can you love him? You've never met! His world is far away. His face is printed, black and white, your night is his bright day. My love is kind, he's there for me, feelings nurtured from our talks, He's tasted my heart and knows my soul, through our frequent cyber walks. He knows my words before I type, He reads my thoughts so clear. For when we're all alone at night, We are strong and have no fear. There is no wrong, It feels so right! , don't judge or question my mind. How can you know of what I speak, until love, at last you find. You can not know the joy he brings, his love , so strong and warm. he lifts me up above this gloom, Like a sun burst at dark dawn. So do not doubt my love for him, this passion I know is true. Although I have not seen him, it does not matter , but to you.

 by Tsuyo and Bree Starlyte

I just wanted to write a brief note of thanks for all that everyone did to help Tsuyo and me to have a wonderful wedding day. Everyone was very gracious and helpful. Thanks for all the wonderful gifts and good wishes.

Special thanks to: White Rose, Dream Keeper, Bionic Woman, Webmite, Lotis Blossom, and anyone I might be forgetting, who contributed special gifts for my heart chest to Tsuyo. You are all generous, wonderful people.

Thanks also to: Ropes, Lady Di, K. Michele, and all our other friends who ghosted to provide security during the ceremony.

A special thank you to Oracle Uni for honoring us by performing the ceremony, and for the gracious gift of engraved keys, which we will cherish.

And last, thank you to our special friends who comprised the wedding party: Frank Rizzo (thanks for giving Tsuyo a great bachelor party!), Salisarr (who's great at calming down the nervous bride-to-be), and to my best girlfriends, Bionic Woman and Precious One/Brat, without whom I could never have gotten everything together.

We'll now be known by our married names: Tsuyo and Bree Starlyte

CLOUD RACER SPECIAL COMING! By Acolyte Serena & Holger

On March 29th, at 11 AM WAT, the Ghost Races will hold it's first Cloud Race Special. For those who read the file GHOSTG.TXT in the forum library, Worlds Away Life Section, they will know what this means. For those who haven't:

"What is a Cloud Race Special? It is only open to all those avatars who have not won any races during the month. If you won just one race, at a Friday or Monday race, you can not compete in these races! Only the Cloud Racers for the month can race. There will be the traditional number of races, but the limit will be held to a one win limit. If there are less then 11 avatars present at the end of the race, then after all of them have won at least one race, they all can race again for a second prize. In no case shall the racers be eligable for more then two prizes. Instead the races will end after all have two prizes."

So, anyone who has one so far in March can NOT race in the races on the 29th. Holger will be hosting the first Cloud Race Special and I hope you all give him the consideration and assistance I have come to respect from the avatars who attend our events.

Who can NOT race? Below is a list of racers... so far... who can NOT race on the 29th. By the way, the Monthly Champ will still be crowned that night, so any who are in the running, need to turn up for the race off, if needed, or the presentation. Those who CAN NOT race on the 29th Cloud Race Special are:

Chris Storm, Dedanann Srk, Astrid, Bud Drakir, Sunray LumMoose-Kymer Guardian, Darkhorse, Crusader Sidekick, Necrolyte Benny, SunRay Mage CyberMage II, OM, Huck, Utopia, Helpolyte Marla, Moody, Actionizer, Princess Toadstool, Mons Olympus, Markus J. Doe., Robynn, Chief Duckolyte Davy Joe, Christopher Storm, Imajica, Huckleberry, Duckolyte

Chief Mage Brains, Simon, Vagabond, Necrolyte Xian Srk and Renegade. There they are, the list of winners so far this month.... the cream of the crop. If you've been having problems touching the ground BECAUSE of these racers, you'll be glad to know that they won't BE THERE to race on the 29th! Here's your chance to get down on the ground and go for the prize. This will happen every time there is a fifth Monday or Friday in the month. Thank you all for your support, and hope to see you there. >>REDWALL ABBEY CHARTER presented by Roga Mae and Ali Quid, ferrets who are bouncing off to the hammock for a nap In the spirit of Martin the Warrior, and of the dear Redwall Abbey he founded so long ago, Those creatures great and small of the New Redwall Village, signed, take vow: to be Brothers and Sisters of peace and goodwill, living together in harmony under the protection of New Redwall Village, forsaking all unnecessary forms of violence, not only to Phantassus, its trees, grasses, flowers and insects, but to all living creatures. to help and comfort the dispossessed, harbor orphans and waifs, offer shelter to all creatures alike give clothing, warmth and food to any beast or creature that is deemed in need of such. to educate and learn, particularly in the healing arts, comfort the sick, nurse the injured and help the wounded. to take our food from the earth and replenish the land by caring for it, husbanding crops and living in harmony with the seasons always to honor and protect our friends and brethren, only raising paw to do battle when our life at New Redwall is threatened by treachery and the shadow of war; at these times every New Redwall creature should show courage, fortitude and obedience to Chief Guide Albeit the taking of another life must always be justified and never carried out in a wanton manner. To this we commit our selves, our families, our possessions to everybeast of New Redwall Village

in reverence of creature to Creator Who gave us all, and to Whom all belongs

An additional portion of text gives some insight into our purpose and our distinctive character among all the other groups within Worlds Away:

". . . there is always room for you here. Our Village is a place of friendship. Anyone, young or old, who as read or heard of Redwall may come and visit us. If you are honest and of good heart, no matter what the season our door is open to you. Whether for the first time, or for the return of an old companion, you are welcome. Please feel free to visit us anytime you pass by this way." [adapted from _Martin the Warrior_, Brian Jacques]

Whatever else we as a group decide to do, these two passages sum pretty much everything there is to know about Redwall versus any other group. It may not be the 'best' direction, but it is 'one' direction a few of us wish to persue. Hope it proves useful.

*** FROM THE BOARDS ***

Somebody has made his own bingo host program that uses the old kymer cards. Do not play in those games. I'm not exactly speaking for Wert but I'm tired of everyone ripping each other off. That other host program should break some copyright laws.

Ways to tell a game of Kymer is fake:

- 1) The numbers are announced like "K 10" instead of "K10"
- 2) The real host program says "NEW KYMER GAME. PLEASE REGISTER YOUR KYMER CARDS NOW." The fake version says "Kymer calling program, licensed to ______" It really isn't licensed to them (in a way).
- 3) This is the real way you can find out if the game's fake. Use the newest version of Wert's player program to register and if you can't register then it's fake. The host would tell you to get the old version.

Imagination, Phantasus Credit- "The Better Token"

<<<I believe that the subject host program may be Madra & Daisy Rua's new host program, designed to work with the original version of Wert's card.>>>

That is correct. Their version breaks at least two copyright laws currently without seeing the host program itself. If the Host program which was uploaded to the forum in error was used and modified, then many more laws were broken as well. I want to believe that this has not been the case.

They are using Wert's BINGO card which is protected by copyright laws. They have also used his name for the game which is copyrighted.

The problem here is that many good people are innocently involved with the game because they are starved for BINGO. Too bad people are taking advantage of Wert's misfortune. He has issues he is trying to resolve with FCT, so he has stopped the sale of the Host program. Instead of supporting Wert on this issue, we go out and write a new program ripping off his work, and play it all day long. You will never find me in one of those games. Some of us still care enough to support the people who are trying to make a difference here, rather than take advantage of them the first chance we get.

Wert has written many programs for us to make this place a more enjoyable place to be. Just check out the forum to see. He has several other games in the works which will be released shortly. I am a registered owner of the host software, and talk to others who have been burned by this whole ordeal as well. Wert has rewritten a new version with new features which will be released when this problem is resolved. My suggestion to Wert is to start selling it now before more people take advantage of his misfortune.

Warmest Regards, Brains

To Dream and Everyone else,

Dreamkeeper, you have not betrayed anyone. What has happened in my opinion is a big misunderstanding. This entire Kymer issue has gotten way out of control and very nasty with the name calling now going on. I will not go into all the details of what have happened but I do believe you deserve an explanation since you feel badly and it hurts me you may think I have behaved in a dishonest way. I AM NOT AN ILLEGAL HOST. I resent the people (not you) that know this yet continue to say such things. It is not at all in the spirit of Kymer.

Basically what happened was a couple days ago Madra Rua asked Soltron and myself if we would mind Beta testing a new Program he wrote. Since I am a confirmed Bingo addict of course after some persuading I said yes. I had NO idea the problems this would lead to. I was however aware that Wert was having problems with FCT and would not sell his own Kymer program. I can appreciate his point of view, but I did not see how a new and totally different program could effect him at all. Perhaps I was naïve. That is still NO reason for people to assume myself and Sol as well now as others are acting dishonestly.

Anyway, I tested the program for Madra and worked out a couple bugs. Wert very nicely asked me for a copy of Madras program. I assume to be sure it was not a hacked version of his own program. I appreciated his concern as I would REFUSE to have used Madras host if in fact it was a hacked version. I am not that kind of person. Also, during these discussions with Wert never complained to me or told me that he did not want me to use the new host. In fact we had a very pleasant conversation about the fact I felt he might start selling his own Host Version as Kymer needs Kymer <G>.

I spoke to Madra and asked him if Wert could have a copy of his program. Madra said no problem but did not want me to send it to Wert myself, since as the author Madra wanted to do send it himself. I wrote Wert and told him to please E-mail Madra to get the program and that Madra said he could get a copy of it directly from him. There seemed to be no problem. By the way, Madra also had a Bingo Card to go with his Host but he told me he felt our of respect for Wert(I guess cause of his dispute with FCT over the illegal download) he would not upload it to the forum until he got permission from the Sysops. I thought everything was fine at this point.

Next thing I know, last night in fact, Wert ESP's me just as I am about to host a game. He tells me his cards are copywriten and I am breaking the law by using them. I told him this information did surprise me as the cards were in the forum and things in the forum were free downloads. Anyway, since he felt this way I immediately canceled my game out of respect for Wert, his position and all the work he has done for Kymer. I then decided to make an announcement to everyone explaining that there was a problem with the cards and I did not feel right using them so I would cancel the game. Please understand that this was the FIRST I had heard of this card problem. Anyway, Wert asked me if I would like him to host some Kymer for all of us Addicts <g> and then he was kind enough to came down to host and we played some Kymer.

I do not feel I did NOTHING wrong folks. I also assume that the other couple hosts like myself were unaware of the problem. To be called names and told all the nasty things in this thread is just unfair. The only reason Madras card was not in the forum before was to be sure he uploaded using the proper protocol. I had spoken to Wert the two days before and he NEVER told me I was using an Illegal Host or Illegal Cards. As soon as he did I stopped playing. I feel the matter could have been handled more maturely by everyone involved,. I really do not believe that threatening people with legal action is the way to handle these matters. I also do not believe that talking behind there backs is either.

I am an extremely reasonable and intelligent person and will listen to logic. I will not however tolerate being threatened for no reason nor ridiculed and called names. It is just not called for and as I said not in the spirit of Worlds Away. I go to WA to have fun, NOT to hurt, offend or abuse anyone. I would appreciate the same courtesy.

I am not and have never been a FAKE KYMER host. I was trying to help someone check out a program. Yes the program IS a bingo game but why can't someone else program a bingo game and sell it. Folks, it is called Supply & Demand. Economics 101. There was a demand for Kymer not being fulfilled and out of desperation, as Madra also missed playing, he wrote a program. There is nothing wrong with competition. It is the American way.

I truly am sorry if I hurt or offended anyone. That was never my intention. Now that I understand that Wert does not want his cards to be used with Madras game. I will certainly respect that wish.

I honestly wish Wert all the best in his dispute with FCT and I am sure he is aware of that. I hope this clarifies my position a bit more. Please know also that Madra has changed the name of his program so that it is not called Kymer anymore. Also his cards should be in the forum today.. I really hope this helps put this matter to rest as I really feel in my heart no one ever meant to hurt anyone else. I certainly know I didnt

Oceanfront

Okay. Its been a little while, and while I'm still mad as hell, I have had time to gather my thoughts. This message takes some of what I said in my less than polite one, and adds some thoughts to it. As for the last message... well, I won't apologize for the language I used. Sometimes you just have to say what you mean, so there can be no mistake. Anyways... on to the issue at hand here:

Lets make sure EVERYONE know's exactly what went wrong (although with over 50 ghosts in attendance, I'm sure many already know). Once a month (in this case it has been two!) Acolyte Brynne and some helpers run the MAD event. It is a delightful game, and I would even go so far as to say one of my favorites. The way it works is that Acolyte Brynne enters world, turns off her ESP (although I'm amused to report we usually get her with an initial wave of ESP's checking to see if she is there), and proceeds to hide 20 bright green chests. These chests are . a special kind given to her by the Oracles, and each one holds an item inside, all locked up tight. Avatars rush around the city seaching for the coveted chests, and then bring them to the Starway Stage for the second half of the event.

Here what is SUPPOSED to happen, is each person who has a chest comes down and Brynne (and Libra) try and pay you off, rather than opening it and letting you keep the contents. Since you have no idea of what is inside, it is a tough choice, especially if they offer up lots of tokens. However, this time Headhunter Chieftan had a different game plan.

When Acolyte Brynne put down a special chest that could hold all of the MAD chests (all twenty), Headhunter Chieftan (HHC) deghosted and snatched it up. Right there in front of over 50 ghosts he stole an Acolyte's special chest, given to her by the Oracles. HHC promptly vanished, having created a fifteen minute delay while Brynne hunted up some some other chests to keep the special MAD ones in. When Brynne finally returned, she managed to get through ONE of the TWENTY players (and all those in the audience) before HHC deghosted once more and made a play for a box on the ground. Through a delightful display of MarvL's APEX technique, HHC was handcuffed until the box could be picked up.

At this point he had created two delays in a widely popular event run by Acolytes. But HHC was not content with doing just this. He then went on refusing to ghost, and bringing the entire event to a grinding halt. Despite plea's from Acolytes and players both, he refused to budge.

After weeks of conning newbies (real tough job) out of their heads, preying on changeroom crashes, ripping people off, disrupting events, and frustrating hundreds of people, it had come down to this. Two hours of treasure hunting, one of the best events in kymer, ended because of him. Acolytes powerless to stop him. The whole time HHC standing there getting off on all the attention. If this weren't enough (although I assure you it is), many are the reports that speak of Oracle Uni publicly supporting HHC. Many are the reports of other thieves going on about this "balance" that is needed. And it would seem FCT would agree with them, because no matter who or how many plead, there is no response in sight. It is not even a sense of them ignoring the issue, rather they seem to be supporting the actions of these few who would disrupt WorldsAway.

And I wonder why.

Why is it nothing is done? Why is it HHC is allowed to continue on his little reign of terror. Why must there be this "other side of the fence" that he delights in forcing on his victims? Is it not enough that we must deal with all the crime and injustices of the real world? Should we have to deal with it here in our dreams as well?

I think not.

WorldsAway is an opportunity that is just too important to let it go this way. I think not enough people realize what is at stake here. WorldsAway is more than just a complex chat area, more than just a visiual meeting place. It is even more than just a community. It is the FIRST of its kind. A prototype if you will. I have no doubt that the future of online communication will find its roots in WorldsAway. WorldsAway is the first in an entire new WORLD, and WE are its founders. We is everyone who is here today, we is FCT as a business and each individual who works for them, we are the Oracles and the Acolytes. We have the opportunity to make a world that is free from crime, poverty, injustice, and their like. We have the opportunity to create a BETTER place than where we are now.

All we have to do is try.

It is time to take care of a problem that has corrupted the good that is the dreamscape for too long. It is time to say that we will no longer stand the likes of those who would try and bring the dream around our ears. Headhunter Chieftan, you had an opportunity to come out of this differently. You had more chances than you should have ever had. Many people in the dream reached out to you and offered you their hand, and all you had to do was accept one. But you chose not to. And still I feel sad that even one of our community must be forced out. Even after ALL you have done, I wish there was another way. But you chose your path, and it is a path that cannot coexist with the dream.

Headhunter Chieftan, the day you chose to disrupt events that enhance the dream in quest for your own personal gain was the day you proved you add nothing to this community. And WE (I speak for many whom with I have talked to) do not want you here.

FCT it is time you looked at this and stepped in. If nothing else should persuade you, then look at this from a sense of just doing good business. HHC pays you but a fraction of what the rest of us do. He has crossed the line to the point where he is costing YOU money (everyone who was going to be around at that event and left was lost revenue... over 50 ghosts... you figure it out). Its all about choices. We choose a better world without this type of behaviour. Your choice is just as easy.

I have an idea for two great games, but an able and willing pool of contestants are needed to insure they can be played. Spectators are also wanted to help out by voting or betting on the contests.

The first one would involve a weekly committment, with Avatars needing to be available from 2PM to 6PM on Sunday nights (exact time yet to be determined). Do you like to brag about your speed and agility? Is your avatar fleet of mind and body? Are you capable of following CHAOS, Inc instructions even when Marianne G has changed the rules for the 5th time? Then this is for you! Be a part of the Kymer Night at the Races! Send in your profile describing your attributes. For every Sunday night, for a month, several races will be held around the fountain..... But these are not simple round the fountain races, oh no! Every week there will be a NEW twist. Every week there will be a NEW challenge. Spectators will have a racing form, published in the CLARION, in advance to help them to place bets.... The odds in the form will be based on past performance by the avatar. There will be several trial races before the first official one, to determine those standings. All contestants must be available for them also.

To host the above game, I need a minimum of 10 racing avatars who will race in 2 races every Sunday. Alternates may be selected to replace racers who are no show at post time.

Contestants needed for the KYMER DATING GAME! Gillian and I were discussing this months ago, and how it was played on Caribe, but the difficulties of bringing it here. I have now found the solution and to test it out, I need contestants. I need avatars willing to be fixed up on a date, and willing to go on that date with the date choosen. Contestants applying for the game should specify if they wish to be the asker or the answerer. The one asking, is the one who asks the three answerers questions, and then, based on their answers, chooses their date. The askers will be picked on a first come basis! All others will be placed as questioners or as alternates in case of no shows.

The asker, once informed they are chosen, must provide a list of questions, in advance that they will be posing to their dating pool. No questions should be of an offending nature. All contestants must provide a profile that describes themselves and what they have to offer.

A minimum of 12 players is needed for this, to host three rounds of the game. Audiance members will be allowed to vote on who THEY think the main contestant should pick. If the contestant pick the same as the audiance, they will receive an extra bonus to assist on their date.

When will these games be hosted? Depends on how fast I get a response from the avatars of the community. All help cheerfully accepted. Please send application to 72007,221 and thank you for helping me to host the best events in the dream!

NOTE - Due to circumstances beyond our control, we did not present last weeks results in the CLARION, therefore, here are two weeks worth of TechTrivia results!

=== Week One ===

Last week's TechTrivia game was hosted by SunRay Hera, SunRay Mariah and Knight Alexis. The big news this week is: Chris Brown set a new record for the most correct answers, 19 out 20 correct!!! Way To Go, Chris. Of course if you hadn't left the room to get your popcorn, you could have scored a perfect 20 and received the infamous "Golden Pocket Protector." <S>

Our 1st place winner, Chris Brown, received 400 tokens and a Lacy_Heart_head*. Winning 2nd place was Duckolyte Larry Lamb with 12 correct answers. He received 200 tokens a Cat head. For third place we had Sunray Ann with 10 right answers. She received 100 tokens and a Snowball. Congratulations to all of the winners!

Winning Honorable Mention were Marvelous Melinda and Seagull. Thanks to all of the players for attending and making this a real fun event.

This game is sponsored by the Knights of Kymer's Games & Role Playing Guild.

=== Week Two ===

This week's TechTrivia game was one of the most exciting ever to take place on the Stage of the StarWay Cafe. Hosted by SunRay Hera and SunRay Mariah with assistance from SunRay Love, 17 players registered to play. This represents the largest attendance in a month. On behalf of the hosts and the Knights of Kymer, we would like to thank you for playing. We will keep striving to make this "free" game one of the best paying events for you to participate in.

The big news this week: Chris Brown did not play!!! Sorry Chris, I had to do it. <S> For those of you that didn't make it this week... don't be surprised if Chris becomes a host and tells his wonderful jokes to our questions during the game. (hint hint, Chris <g>) YES, they were that good!

Winning 1st place this week with 15 correct answers was Sh@crock. She received 400 tokens and a Rose_head. Winning 2nd place with 14 correct answers was SunRay Ann. She received a Lacy_Heart_head and 200 tokens. Winning 3rd place with 12 correct answers was Naresh. He received a Gingerbread_head and 100 tokens. Winning 4th place (that's right, maybe we will award to 5th place next week) with 11 correct answers was RoseHannah. She received a Fern and 100 tokens. Congratulations to all of the winners, especially to Naresh and RoseHannah, two first time winners!

We are MOVING to Wednesday nights at 5 pm WAT. A special prize for returning players who follow us to our new night.

Winning Honorable Mention were Alienyte WAK, Lajolla, Super Ordinary Guy, micki, and Captain Griffen. Thanks to all of the players for attending and making this a real fun event.

This game is sponsored by the Knights of Kymer's Entertainment Guild.

>>DATING KYMER STYLE Hosted by Codemaster John D. and Astarte Reported by Marianne G

.gif files that go with this story:

SUNNY.GIF

ULTRA.GIF

It was 4PM WAT on the 16th of March, and I was late. I was due to cover the Dating, Kymer Style event at the Rose Arches in Meditation Park. Naturally, I was no where near the temple. For a small city, I always seem to be on the wrong end of it when I'm late.

What were the rules of the Dating? As stated by Bob Barker:

- o This is NOT an auction of people. We are auctioning off romantic settings.
- o The 'dates' will start EITHER immediately following the auction, OR at a MUTUALLY agreed upon time later on. In the latter case, and in the event of a 'no show', all moneys will be returned, when all special 'items' used in the date will be returned. However, if the aquirer of the date does not show, all moneys are forfeit. DON'T stand up our lovely dates, please. You'll hurt their feelings ... remember, there's a human behind that keyboard.
- o It is HIGHLY recommended that this event stay 'in character' ... Bob Barker: remember, the person you are with could be married, dating, etc. in the real word. This is a date between your two avatars, not between strictly speaking the people behind the keyboard. Don't wake from the dream!
- o This is NOT to be a 'CyberSex' event. As there is no way to _know_ the ages of the people involved, there will be NO 'dirty talking', please. Let's try and keep Kymer safe for ALL avatars. No, I'm not a prude, nor is this censorship.
- Although DKS can attempt to make your evening as fun as possible, we cannot guarantee success. Human beings are complex creatures ... that's what makes us so interesting!

When I finally got to the assignment, I had missed the first date. Lockjaw had won the date with Taegan. Taegan was very brave to go first. The first one always seems to go low as the crowd gets into the mood.

I noted that Codemaster had changed his name for the event to Bob Barker. Great name choice, leaves no one in doubt on who is hosting. I was in time for MarvL's impressive speech before his date. In addition to the conversational meanderings of a WorldsAway aficionado, MarvL offered a rare 4 object Trick-Or-Treat bag for his date to keep, along with the snowball that was chilling the picnic lunch they would have time to share. I know for a fact, two of the items in that lunch were Barbecue and Boysenberry pie. The lucky lady to win this package was Askani M.

Next up was Abelard, who stated "My pockets are empty... but my heart is full. My eyes are grey, but my heart is red. My hairs are dark, and so is my heart...<bow>. Judith went for this date, must have been the fact that he listens. Hard to get a good listener these days.

Then it was time for The Unicorn. His statement was "The magic of the Unicorn flows freely through Kymer Protecting all. Helping the needy. Spend an hour with me and I will show you how to become a guardian of Phantasus, using the tools available to you to help people. If you are a fairly new or just shy avatar, I will help you with any questions you might have about interacting with people in this world." Now it got confusing... I think this went to SpicyLady or maybe it was Shining Lady who got the date? Gee, I need to get more sleep these days. I hope who ever had the date writes in and tells me how it went!

Next up was Prince Darien who promised "We would have a romantic candlelit dinner of 2 with waitor servic in the most romantic venue in the dreamscape. There would be excellent music and good conversation." Bob Barker announced that for this date, you get TWO avatars.. "I, Bob Barker, will wait at your table, with some of these vendo items". Prince Darien continued with "I don't have anything to offer you except my heart so please take it." And who took the offer? Sunny Dee Lite, for 700 got a Prince and Kymer's first ever catered dinner!

Next up was Willabee. Willabee had this to say. "Well . . . Just like a young duckling, I'm soft and fluffy And and give nice conversation, just like . . . um . . . Buffy! For our date, we'll take a romantic stroll along the arbor in Meditation Park And since you can't pick the roses there, I have a bouquet for you, as well as heart-shaped pillow. So you'll think of me at the end of every day Just like I'll be thinking of you." WOW! I could have gone for this one.... but I'm taken already :D That didn't stop Astarte from grabbing the duck! Shhhhhh don't tell Lugh!

Next up was Ultraviolet who had this to say bout herself. "Well, most people know me because I'm ALWAYS here. I've been in World's Away since November. I help out with Kymer bingo a lot ... putting my own two cents in here and there. Singing and dancing like an idiot <g> To help people laugh and have good time. I even have my own patented hiney kick <g>. I'm pretty spontaneous, a little kooky, spunky, and vibrant. But I'm awfully sweet too! I will let you be my snowman for an evening, keeping a rare snowball as a momento of our date. With my UV rays, I will melt your heart!" Snoop Doggie Doug took her up on her date offer for 1000T. I'm sure they'll have a good time.

Sunray Ann was next with her Dancing under the Stars Dream date. She described it as, "I think it will be a lot of fun. What I see is a date, complete with champagne, flowers and dancing under the stars at the Observation Deck of the Starway Cafe. I love to get to know everyone here and want to hear what you think about our dream here". Sunray Knight Necrol yte Jackal paid 2400T for his dance lesson. Can't wait to hear how it went!

Then it was time for the Door prizes. Meaf Inc donated an Angel Ornament (won by Sandy Eve) and a snowball (won by Passion). The last doorprize was donated by Clover's Collectibles. A rare rose head, a unique color, not available in Vendo's! Prince Darien was the lucky winner of the head.

The last date was Sunny Dee Lite. She said that "A date with me will be a SWEET TREAT! I'll provide an Ice Cream Cone head, lattes, capuccino, candys, and a rare peppermint for your sweet tooth! You will enjoy these scrumpcious delicasies amid the stars in the StarWay Cafe Orbitron area. Now doesn't that sound delicious?" It sure did to Helpolyte MEAF who set the record by spending 2500T's for that SWEET TREAT Date.

OH and as an added note.... The hosts are donating 5% of everything to the SunRay's! One other little thing we should mention. We did try and ask all who were there, to write in and tell us how their date went! Think I mostly got the female halves of the date :D So, in future CLARIONS, you'll be hearing from the datees!

There were more dates, but just not enough time. So look for future Dating, Kymer Style dates and times to be announced!

The 3rd racing of March had as many participants as the week before! At least it didn't take THAT long as last week to get through <g>

Anyway... Here are the results:

Winning one race each were Princess Toadstool who got a chocolate, Mons Onlympus who snatched a nice rose head, LumMoose getting a pink clothes spray in the first part of the second chance races while Markus J. Doe won in the 2nd part getting the head spray of pink!

Winning in two races each were Sidekick who got two ferns (he must like those)..., Moody who took home a Snowball and some knitting, Darkhorse getting 50 tokens and Bananas and Actionizer who got a heart chest and a Lacey_Heart_Head !!

Still on top of the scores for the monthly championship prize are Darkhorse and Sidekick with 6 points each now. Unfortunately LumMoose could only get one item this time and is in 2nd position with 5 points.

so hope to see you all again on Friday 22th of March, 11 pm WAT, outside Isle Caribe as usual :-) ! Thanks to all for playing !

>>CHAOS, Inc Gaming Report
by Marianne G

Greetings from the lockjawed skull host of chaotic endeavors. I'd like to ask you all to take a look at the report on the recent vandalism that took place in the Impound area on the docks of Kymer. Your help in apprehending the criminal, or criminals who committed this act is appreciated.

Now for the game report! The game on the 14th (since we have officially moved to our new THURSDAY night date) were a perfect example of why you should come early. It was a new game on trial this week, and it took 1/2 hour to outline the rules. Naturally, anyone who did not show up till an hour into the game, was asked to just come to a future game at the 5 PM WAT Starting time. There was no way I was going to go through the rule discussion again.

We tried out DREAMWORLD TAG and were able to play two games. Once the rules are worked on, and more defined, we should be able to fit many more then that into two hours. In the first game, we lost one of our two IT's, but Captain Griffin was able to Tag Damia who Tagged Lajolla before the time was up.

We played a spoiler version in the second round with Acolyte Milen being the Spoiler. Tagging her was worth 2 points, but being tagged by her lost you a point. Poor Wart ended up with a negative score due to this.

Milen were able to get both Wart and Damia, but JayVee and Damia managed to tag Milen. Damia also tagged Wart, but Five Spice 2 was unable to find an avatar to tag.

Top winner was Damia with JayVee in second place and Captain Griffin in third. Other winners were Pegasus, Cut-Me-Own-Throat Dibbler, Wart, Lajolla, Gambler and Five Spice 2.

The players liked the game, so that rule update will be in the works.

Help Wanted: Kymer Community Services

Due to the overwhelming response regarding the Email club and Matchmaker in particular, Kymer Community Services is looking for a few good avatars to come to the aid of their community. <G> The jobs are partially behind-the-scenes; partially inWorld contact with avatars; and at the moment, they are volunteer positions. The perks, of course, are good... for instance, access to a zillion e-mail pals if you're interested. :-) The work includes typing and doing mailings; cross-referencing avatars; that sort of thing. It requires a knack for noticing detail, good typing skills (accuracy most important; speed secondary importance); the ability to be on time, work independently, and work under deadline; good people/avatar communication skills, honesty, and integrity. At times, the positions will require inWorld contact (meetings with groups of avatars, or individual meetings; also Q&A sessions inWorld at pre-designated times.

If you feel that you'd be good in a position like this, please email me at 75147,3120 with the words "Job Applicant" in the subject heading. In the body of your message, state your inWorld name and the position you are interested in. When I receive your e-mail, I will send you a Volunteer Application.

Applications will be accepted until ** Sunday, 31 March, 1995, ** so please put in your application request early so I can get the paperwork out to you quickly. Beginning on 31 March, the applications received will be reviewed; when a decision is made, I will notify you via e-mail.

Other positions (volunteer positions as well as a few paid positions) will be opening as well; if you see a program in the KCS information packet that you think you would work well in as an employee, please feel free to e-mail me and let me know. When a position in your area of interest is open, I'll send you an application. (All applications, by the way, will be kept on file; if you want to have your application removed, let me know via email.)
