The Editor Speaks..... Acolyte VIQer..

For quite some time, I was on leave of absence from the dreamscape. Turfs have remained the popular place for everyone to go.... What's happened to all the gatherings in the streets we used to see? Perhaps many folks feel safer in their turfs.. I prefer to get out there and see the city. You'll still find me hanging around the helpdesk, answering questions and helping our new arrivals get adjusted to their surroundings. For me, very little has changed about my feelings for Phantasus.....

On another note, Milen commented last week about how we miss our former editor Rosaleah. I'd like to add that she was actually the "founder" of this idea, the Kymer Clarion. It's in that respect that I'll always see her. We met at the WA gathering and she was writing notes as things were happening there. Hopefully she'll continue to throw us contributions to add here and there.. Rosie, already we miss ya!! Don't forget what you started here.....

Letter To The Editor Oracle Teresias

Dear Editor,

This is just a brief note about some comments I recently made regarding the rotation of head in head machines. I was recently quoted as saying that beta heads will be recycled back in to head machines. I was extremely busy at the time and the answer was brief and I was not asked for further clarification. Let me provide that clarification for anyone interested.

It is true that beta heads will be put back in to head machines during the existence of the Dreamscape. This does not mean that the upcoming rotation of heads will be exclusively nor even mostly beta heads. Out of the roughly 16 - 20 heads which will replace current heads, there is a chance that one of those heads might be a beta head. The rest will be either new or may have been previous prize heads.

I wish to make it clear that we never promised that heads would have limited distribution nor are we purposefully driving the rarity of specific heads. Heads we make available for distribution in the vendos will be because of a desire to increase the variety of heads in the Dreamscape and to give people a chance to have some of the heads which are indeed rare, but very, very cool and very, very fun. Those who chase rare heads for their token worth alone run the risk which most investments have - going bust.

I hope that everyone will enjoy the new and the old heads in their own way.

Sincerely,
Oracle Teresias

HELP WANTED!

By CLARION Staff

The CLARION is now accepting applications for two, currently non paying positions. We would like anyone interested in becoming part of our publication, to let us know! Send your application to us at 72007,221 if you are interested in the following two positions or in just becoming a reporter for us.

The two positions we would like to fill are those of Schedule Co-ordinator and Advertisement Co-ordinator. The two positions are basically full time staff positions, and you would not be required, unless you felt comfortable taking on more, to do other reporting functions.

The Schedule Co-ordinator would be responsible for maintaining a listing of the current event schedule, receiving events from the avatars, contacting avatars for updated events, and providing the schedule to the rotating editor for that week for publication in the CLARION.

The Advertisement Co-ordinator would be responsible for maintaining the advertisement section of the CLARION, updating that section, and editing incoming ads for space.

If you are interested in these, or other positions, please contact us at 72007,221 and thank you for your interest.

The VoCC (Victims of Crimes and Crashes) Mission
An Overview of Purpose By Sunray Fawn and Acolyte Sunray Indigo

It is amazing! The VoCC has given over 48,000 Tokens as compensation and replacement to Avatars who have experienced the wronged side of crimes and crashes in Worlds Away. And that figure does NOT include the items and heads (both rare and vendo-available) that have been replaced.

The weekly Sunray Auction which supports the VoCC is propelled by a strong force. It creates a wave of self-help and mutual support throughout the Dreamscape without addressing the criminals. And it offers support to the Oracles (who are besieged enough with work to make the Dreamscape better for us), by compensating some of the losses experienced during crashes - though they are more than willing to do so.

We shall continue our efforts until the counter force of crime is pushed back upon itself. We are not indicting or punishing; we are providing a safe environment for the victim in the face of immoral acts and crime.

I have wanted to write about this endeavor for weeks. Recently I was robbed of everything I owned during a Sunray Auction due to an innocent and accidental slip in security. There was an incredible wave of compassion that followed the moment of helpless horror that I fell victim to. This care and support was like a wave that washed over the negativity and I was left with a feeling of safety. Render and Pal Joey would not leave my side, selflessly handling the majority of esp's that I could not answer <g>. Pal Joey and Oceanfront were the epitome of clear thinking in a panic situation. They sought out the network of possible causes, and then tracked and retrieved the stolen goods that night.

Although in my story, the theft itself was solved, I retell it here because I want to convey the deep personal shock and horror of being violated this way. We truly cannot imagine what it feels like until it actually happens. The VoCC has been borne out of the vision and promise that we can help one another recover from such personal devastation. We reach out and can help one another more effectively than trying to rehabilitate those lost misguided avatars who commit the crime and who don't want to be helped.

Support our effort if you can by attending our Auctions every Friday night at 5:00 p.m. WAT in the Sunray Auction turf. But be assured that whether you attend our auctions or not, whether you donate or not, you may always call upon us for help and compensation. You will be supported and not left alone if the fates cause your path to cross the ill intentions of another misguided avatar or an unexpected crash.

The purpose and intention of VoCC follows the very simple wisdom of an ancient saying, "Love Conquers All," which we have all heard but not necessarily witnessed in action. This endeavor in Kymer is an effort to make that truth become a living one. Thank you.

Duckolyte Security School By Disco Duck, Wing Special Projects

It's not too late to enroll in Duckolyte Security School, which will hold its fourth session on Sunday, July 14, at 1:00 p.m. in the turf "Duck School". The Duckolytes who plan, coordinate, and conduct the training sessions are: Ropes Pajo, Duckolyte Wing, Duckolyte Princess Di Pajo, Duckolyte Nostromo Richmar, and Duckolyte Bobbi Richmar.

The goal of the Security School is educating both new and experienced avatars about item handling, container security, turf security, and all the other skills that help make inworld experiences both safer and more enjoyable.

Duckolyte Security School meets every Sunday, so that avatars will have the opportunity to practice their skills and to learn new ones. To make each training session more fun, prizes are offered for participants.

These training sessions are offered to all avatars, free of charge.
We hope to see you there!

I Dreamed I saw..... By Marianne G

So, let me share some of my dreams with you..... and I won't even mention CHOKe or ponytails :D

I dreamed that there was a teleport with the address Temple Turfs one region West of the Apartment Building entrance. I also saw an ATM Machine one region East of the that entrance.

Opps... hit something wrong.... went down to the cellar.... storage area here? Geesh, each apartment has a locked area for storage? Where do I get my key? Turf Engineer's Office? Is that a janitor? SO That's where they are hiding the CHOKE Machines! In the basement! (Ok, ok.... I tried!)

UPWARD By Hamlet & Friends

UPWARD stands for United Pets of Worlds Away Reach for the Dream and my name is Hamlet. Some of you I have met.... I am Marianne G's pet, or she is mine. Sometimes it's hard to tell. I am just a regular skeleton who has choosen to spend my life with her, and our other companions. Perhaps you have met them also. Alexander, her pet guard spider, who runs all over the turf, No_Name her pet Torgy Teddy who won his name at the recent Teddy Bear Picnic, and Create, her pet Baby Bear who finally decided on the name he was already engraved with. No accounting for taste.

Yes, you heard it, only teddies were allowed to win that honour. Well, in the words of the song, What about me? It isn't fair, I've had enough now I want my share.... Am I not bone? Do I not have feelings? I do! Alexander does! And many of your pets, which are NON-Teddies out there also should have the same rights of a chance to win our names. A chance to be celebrated for our unique qualities. An opportunity to strut our stuff and display our abilities.

Duckolyte TriviaMaster - June 30th By Disco Duck, Wing Special Projects

On Sunday, June 30, at 7:00 p.m. in the turf "Duck Hunt", Brains, Wing Commander of the Krewe of the Duckolytes hosted another rousing session of Duckolyte TriviaMaster. The topic was Duck Soup, with not one doggy question in the lot. Extra door prizes were given to soothe the ruffled feathers of those who wanted to put Brains in the soup for having forgotten to give the door prizes to Larry Lamb last week.

The competition was especially keen, with winners having been decided based upon the last few questions. No tie breaker was required.

Winners for the week were:

First Place: TexWilly Wonka, who won a rare colored rose head with matching paints packed in a heart chest;

Second Place: Izabella, who won a rare colored lacy heart head with matching paints packed in a heart chest;

Third Place: Jadelin, who won a rare colored duck head with matching paints packed in a heart chest;

Fourth Place: Meridienne, who won a fern.

The Monthly Champion is determined by weekly winners using the following point system:

1st Place = 5 Points
2nd Place = 3 Points
3rd Place = 2 Points
4th Place = 1 Point

The monthly winners received some very special prizes:

1st - Julie S. was awarded an engraved Smiley Head, "Duckolyte Trivia Champ -6/96"

2nd - Meridienne received an Xmas Elf Head;

3rd - TexWilly Wonka received a Gingerbread Head.

Be sure to join the other contestants with agile minds and fleet fingers at 7:00 p.m. on Sundays in the turf "Duck Hunt".

Monday Ghost Racing - July 8th By Acolyte Serena

Today we gave away the first prize in our Christmas in July Celebration. I was asked why we don't have more then one special prize per race to go for. Actually, it's a combination of packing only for two hosts at the time the items were available (and now we have three ghost races each week) and some of the items stocked away are STILL in vendos. I never was that good at guessing. But we do hope that you all enjoy the special items we do have spread between the three hosts and the games we bring to you.

At the race on the 8th, we also introduced the Try Your Luck Ghost Race where the ornament was awarded. All racers who had NOT won their limit raced for a box, one box each, and then they were opened to see if they had a token or two, or were empties. Necrolyte SKY TOWER had the box with one token and won a ghost race point and 100 Tokens for that, and April May June had two tokens in her box, which won her the ornament, (see GR070896.GIF in Newstand Forum Library) and a ghost race win point.

Race results are:

- 1) Briar Hamadryad - 50T
- 2) Actionizer - Flowers in Vase
- 3) Briar Hamadryad - 50T
- 4) Imagination - snowball
- 5) Kira - 50T
- 6) Kira - Chill Pill
- 7) Actionizer - 50T
- 8) April May June - Cyber Chick w/ non-vendo hair and eye color
- 9) Necrolyte SKY TOWER - 100T
- 10) April May June - Christmas Ornament
- 11) Skandranon - cough drop
- 12) Skandranon - 100T

Friday Ghost Racing - July 3rd By Darkhorse

With the July 4th U.S. holiday I had to reschedule Friday the 5th races for Wednesday the 3rd. I had 5 racers who showed up which made the races for them quite easy. Each won their 2 races aloud. Because of the lack of racers I ran a handful of races afterward that didn't count for this months standings.

The Races will continue as usual the rest of the month hopefully, and for this month there is a theme of Christmas in July where I will be giving away items that are from Christmas, Ornaments, Snowballs etc. Join us won't you? There are full rules which can be found in the forum.

Tuesday, July 2nd

We had only 11 players, but it was a tough night. Rogils came in first with only 15 points, Sunray Sir Launce came in second with 14 points, and Io came in 3rd with 13 points.

Wednesday, July 3rd

We only had twelve players, but again, had to go to a speed round to break a persistent tie for third. "Hi, I'm Julianna" came in first with 24 points, Rogils came in second with 20 points, and Charity Case came in third with 12 points.

For those of you who have not yet played TRIVIA Challenge at Megret's Madhouse, one thing to remember is don't give up! The more often you play, the more you'll feel like part of the "in" crowd that knows my tricks and how to use my hints. For example, if I say, "READ the question!" as a hint, all the regulars know that part or all of the answer is contained in the question. Plus, I sometimes give out a "booby prize" at the end to the player who has consistently used "creative guessing" but not won. I believe in giving prizes for persistence and creativity. So, when you come, stay, and enjoy the game!

Oracle Teresias To Aid the Krewe By Disco Duck, Wing Special Projects

We've all heard about those few, fateful, and fortuitous encounters that lead to something special. Most of us have thought about that "some enchanted evening" that "is the start of something big". Ratavas who grew up in the 1960s are very likely to remember watching "The Millionaire" in TV syndication and looking for the philanthropic John Beresford Tipton's private secretary behind every tree. That million dollars was a nice fantasy allowance add-on! Most of us have bought lottery tickets in Kymer, the real world, or both, and some of us have even won.

On Thursday, June 27, Passion had a Magical Elevator Encounter. As the co-host of the popular new Kymer game "Pinkie and the Brains", Passion had been busily cruising Kymer byways to promote the event. As all game hosts and event organizers know, every ghost counts! After an hour of visiting every public locale, Passion hurried back to the Apartment Building. She had to meet Brynne, the Celebrity Co-Host of the week, she had to open up the turf, she had to set up "Pinkie's Place" for the game. She was one busy avatar! Those surprise encounters always seem to happen when one is in most of a hurry and least prepared. Just as Passion was about to click on the elevator door, who should materialize but Oracle Teresias, burgundy robes aflutter and blue book in hand.

Those who have met Passion know that she is an avey with savvy. She hurriedly sent an ESP to Brynne, asking her to be patient for just two more minutes, then bowed to Teresias. Passion explained the game that she was about to host. "Hnnnnnnnn--sounds like fun," Teresias said. Passion reminded him that even an Oracle can cut loose and live the dream now and then. She tantalized him, holding out the carrot of celebrity guesthood. Teresias bit! He swallowed! He chewed on that carrot awhile and said, "I can do that. Let me put July 11 on my calendar."

The Krewe of the Duckolytes may not be able to produce John Beresford Tipton's private secretary bearing a check for a million dollars, but we can provide the occasional enchanted evening. Our Oracles are magic, and the Magical Teresias will be the Celebrity Guest at the July 11 session of "Pinkie and the Brains". If you've ever wanted to meet an Oracle, up close and personal, this is your big opportunity!

Mark your calendar, set your alarm watch! Go ahead, avatars in Alaska and Hawaii, leave work early! Whatever you do, be sure to play "Pinkie and the Brains" at 6:00 p.m. WAT on Thursday, July 11 in the turf "Pinkie's Place".

Teresias will join Passion, Brains, and the gathered ghosts. He will hide somewhere in Kymer. The lucky avatar who is the first to find him and to utter the secret phrase aloud will not only have an oracular encounter, but will be entitled to select one of the locked Duckolyte Prize Chests containing a secret surprise. Even better, that canny and quick avatar will be eligible to participate in the special Championship Round on Thursday, July 28. The winner of that round will receive a very special prize from the Oracles.

Come join the fun! "Pinkie and the Brains" is an exciting weekly game sponsored by the Krewe of the Duckolytes and co-sponsored by ESP! There is no special software to download, no entry fee to pay, so don't miss out. July 11 promises to be a very special day in the annals of Kymer and of the Krewe of the Duckolytes. Be sure to attend!

Phantasus Adoption Agency

For many months now I have witnessed the formation of many special relationships in the Dreamscape. However until now only the relationship of marriage has been recognized under Kymerian and Phantasian Law. The Phantasus Adoption Agency is now here to provide avatars and inanimate objects alike with the chance now to officiate the parent-child relationship in the eyes of Morpheus.

For everyone out there who shares a special bond with another avatar or who has that special teddy/infantar/fuzzy in their life and desires a way to make it legal we are here to serve you. The officiating can be something as simple as a library upload or as elaborate as a wedding ceremony. It's the family's decision. =-)

If you would like to book an appointment or have any questions please email me at 102212,1117 or reply to this via forum message.
