The Editor Speaks
By VIQer

It's been since September 10th that the dreamscape has been open to the public. The number of Phantasus residents has been rising steadily since then. I was in the dreamscape just before writing this and there were people around every locale between Serena's Chaos game at the Temple entrance and the Visitor Center!

As I went on duty, many asked "are there any games or events going on today" and I've had to tell them "nothing right now" quite often! We have so many new residents that they need more things to do and places to go. Three of us were trying to find a private locale in the Temple but found that most of them were full! It's good to see the land so well populated and I hope that some new doors will be opening soon!

The dreamscape is slowly evolving and we have more things going on now than ever before. Several of our entrepreneurs have hired employees to help with business.

There have been questions as to when turfs will be available and it is a ways off yet but in the meantime, just make sure you have someone you know help out when sorting through your pockets and chests. This avoids many misunderstandings, believe me!

And above all else, remember, we're here to have fun! Happy dreaming!

ANNOUNCING "MAKE A DEAL"!
By Brynne

"Make a Deal" (MAD) is coming to the streets of Phantasus on Sunday, October 8, 1995 at 2pm WATtime! Mark that down on your calendars because you'll be sure to want to join in the fun!

What is MAD, you ask? It's a combo event. My co-host for this first MAD extravaganza, VIQer, and I will be hiding 20 dark green chests all over Phantasus. You'll know when you spot a MAD chest because it identifies as ... but of course ... MAD chest! If you try to open it, however, you're in for a surprise! You won't be able to because the MAD chests are locked! Don't even think about pawning it; but if you must try, just get it appraised first. You'll discover it will be more worth your while to come to Isle Caribe and make a deal with us.

The first part of this combo event is for you to hunt all over Phantasus looking for ONE MAD chest. Yes, one! Once you find one, head over to Isle Caribe where VIQer and I will be waiting to make you a deal on that chest. If you bring two or more MAD chests to us, you'll be asked to choose which one you want and then re-hide the others for some other avatar-hunter to find.

VIQer and I will keep track of who arrives when. We'll let you know you are on our list and then we'll ask you to ghost. If more than one avatar is in body form, the dealing will be halted until we only have *one* avatar on the ground with us.

We will call each avatar-hunter when his/her time to deal arrives. Once you unghost, we'll begin the deal. We'll offer you tokens for your MAD chest. You have two options: you can take the tokens we offer or you can decide to take your chances on the contents of the chest -- which could be one of the two special heads the Oracles have provided for this first MAD; it could be a special lockable chest with its very own key; it could be more tokens than we've offered during the deal, or it could be a filled with an item from the vendroids -- or it could be home to a spider! You can try to get us to offer you more tokens for the MAD chest -- or you can just tell us you'll take your chances on the contents of the chest.

If you decide to take the tokens we offer, we'll unlock the chest and show you what you've missed out on -- but you don't get to keep it! We'll put it back in our prize stock for our next MAD event.

If you decide to take the contents of the trunk, we'll unlock it for you and then you can reach in and GRAB your prize -- leaving the MAD chest there of course! We only have 20 chests right now and will need to have all of them returned to us for our next MAD.

VIQer and I will be at Isle Caribe until 4pm WATtime. If you find a MAD chest but are unable to come deal with us, feel free to send me email (Brynne, 71273,373) or leave me a message in the waking world forum so that we can set a time to get together so you can get your prize and I can get the chest.

Now is that exciting or is that exciting? <G> Get in the MAD spirit and be sure to join us for the first Phantasus MAD on Sunday, October 8! We'll be waiting for you!
