The Editor Speaks

First I'd like to apologize for the tardiness of this issue...... Waking World circumstances were not very permitting for me last week. Family issues must come first sometimes. It was very important.

The show must go on however.... The Clarion continues to bring the features we hope you enjoy. The editorial board welcomes any articles or suggestions any avatar may have. If there's something you'd like to see here or you just have an idea floating around and no way to tie it down, please write to us. Our publication is the voice of the community.

We're growing with this community, and changing, just as it is. Check out the "Head of the Week" or read your name in the gaming section if you've been attending the local events and possibly walking away with some great prizes after having so much fun! Check the ever changing advertisemen ts and event announcements. Use your imagination to add color to this world of ours!

The Clarion is all about the Dreamscape.... What and who is here... And what we're all doing, or at least most of us! We can't fit you all in here every week, much as we'd like to <G>.

Take care and dream well everyone!

I Dreamed I Saw By Marianne G

So there I was, at the teleport machine, and when I got in, I was thinking of porting to the Blasted Heath entrance on Oak Street, but guess I was thinking of all that blasted sand behind the fence and I said Beach instead.... The next thing I knew, I had ported to a great Beach area! It had sand and waves, and you could even walk into the water. There was, naturally, a vendo with supplies for the beach. Tanning lotion (like on Caribe that turned your skin color all a shade darker until it washed off or wore off), beach balls, towels, (also great for inter-galactic travel), umbrellas for the beach, etc.. The best part, however, were the houses right on the beach! WOW! To live out there, with a deck and steps down to the shore, what a great place to live.

Now, how can EVERYONE have a house on the beach? Simple, just like with the elevators, when you go to the door of the Beach house, whichever one it is (they went from Beach Shacks to really nice Beach Mansions) you had to enter the name of your house, and that is where you went to, your house.

I had to try out more, so returning to the teleport, I tried the Mountains, and came upon a perfect Alpine Ski Resort like area. It had trails to climb, snow to ski in, it had it all. You could have a room in the Hotel Resort, or maybe you owned one of your own Chalets on the mountain. They were spectacular with great views... overlooking the mountains and the lake.... Yes, the view. I visited one of the homes and when you went out onto their balcony, the vista (back wall) was a changing wonder to behold. You saw the boats out on the lake, or in winter, the snow falling and the skiers coming down the mountain... Yes, a great view to behold, and it was all yours if you owned the house!

What other houses were there to find? A port to Suberbia would bring me to a row of houses? How bout a port out west to a ranch? Or is it possible to port to Venice and live overlooking the canals? What would your dream include? Send them to 104706,712 and share your dreams!

Speaking of sharing your dreams, the following came from Jaymeister:

I dreamed I saw places of learning like colleges where you can find out about different aspects of life - online and offline. This would be helpful for new avatars. I also saw visions of being able to transport from a transporter to anywhere in the Dreamscape. Clothes would also be loved by a lot of avatars. You could even start having fashion shows!!!!!

Way to go Jaymeister! I'd be willing to host the fashion show when we have it.

Head of the Week Acolyte VIQer

I'm always on the lookout for some unusual head that I haven't seen for a long time, or that some folks have never seen at all!

This week we have two heads in the gif "sockclar.gif". The first head, on the left, is the infamous and possibly malodorous sock head... This was a rare prize won in the events of Kymer quite some time ago. A good friend of mine, Necrolyte Benny, owns one as does Darkhorse. I'm not sure how many others are out there, but very few indeed! The photo seen is the only photo I could come up with and not have to dig into my taped archives. I'll dig this week and try to find a side view. It does the head even more justice. It would be funny to see some animation added to this head, say in the form of a cartoon type "gas" floating from the top as if it had some type of foot odor <BG>. Word to the wise: Do Not get downwind of the Sock!

Mystery head contest:

The second head, depicted on the right, is not quite as rare, although it may appear as something many of you have never seen before. This is a mystery for everyone to unravel. What type of head is this? <F8> Tell ya what, for everyone and anyone who can email me what type of head is depicted on the right, I'll give 50 tokens! Take a good look <G>. Go looking for the owner, it doesn't matter. Name that head for 50 tokens!

If you have a rare head you'd like featured here, let me know. We'll need some f ront and side shots along with a little history as to how the head was obtained. We can arrange a photo shoot.

Email Acolyte VIQer at 104706,723 and label it Head of the Week!

Change is Good: The Power of Suggestion

I am forever thrilled to see people taking an active part in the community. This is the beginning of a virtual city- one has the potential to live, grow, and advance. And, like any city, it needs activists to get things changed and done.

There are vocal members of any real community- people who stand up and do something when something needs to be done. Then, there are people who ponder- these people think and say something when they re ready. If there were less people who did neither, our community would be a utopia, or close to it. There are, of course, those who not only do neither, but also disrupt our community. If people stopped running around like chickens with their heads cut off (ahem, pardon <F3>) and started looking for a way to prevent this from happening to fellow chickens, we would be much better off in the long run.

So, next time you see something you think is truly wrong and is worthy of your time and effort, I say go for it- become an active member of your community. Write a message and vocalize your thoughts- if it s a worthy cause, people will listen.

If you have an issue you want discussed or a story you want told, please send it to AvaTara 76026,476.

EVENTS & ANNOUNCEMENTS
* Robin Resigns	By	Robin,	Asst	Sys0p
Hi everyone,

I have decided to resign my Assistant Sysop post. There are several personal reasons why I have decided this, the main reason is that I have decided that my real waking world life is more important and too busy for me to maintain a proper level of service in the forum.

I have done some real thinking and discussion of this with my friends, and I have found that it is best for me to put my future and my school studies first. I guess that sometimes you get to a point in life where you have to decide where your energy is best spent and most appreciated. I reached that point. I find that right now at this point in my life, it is better for me to spend that energy, time, and money on something that can enrich my future.

I will not be online too much in the forum from now on, and I won't be reachable at this address. My personal address is 102212,1177. :)

Love to you all,

Robin

* Trek Trivia Note By VIQer

Complete Trek Trivia report coming up next issue! All the winners from past week s will be featured !!

*** EVENTS SCHEDULE ***

Eeks, it's that Glynicus again! I keep popping up in various places and now I've been given the job of preparing your events schedule. It's ironic that as a provider of events I also get to advertise those of competitors. Well, I have no favourites<g>.

Let me apologise to those of you who regularly have your events listed here and have been missed. Time was short, and whilst I sent E-Mail's to all on my not inconsiderable mailing list, there are bound to be some who will be aggrieved! If you wish your event(s) to be listed in the schedule then please send your details to the scheduling staff at 101727,561. You should include the day, time (AM/PM WAT), frequency, host(s) if appropriate, name of event, description and LOCATION!!!

Recently, a number of turf's have been opening to sell rare items but my own experience of these is that many of them close after only one week of trading or less! I will include details of turf's selling rare items but I will also keep a regular check on these to ensure that they remain open and do not waste valuable schedule space.

***** THEFT WARNING *****

If you hold rare prizes in an advertised turf then you should be aware of a turf patch that allows unscrupulous individuals to gain access to your turf when you are not there. There have been many reported thefts recently not least of which is the robbery of a locale of the Kymer Historical Society. As a precaution you should ensure that you have a secret turf where your valuable possessions are separately stored when not in use and under supervision. If you have any information about a turf robbery please report it to an Acolyte immediately.

There are now some turf's exclusively for 24 hour games. FW (Friends World) and GAMES (my own) are both international turf's and need hosts to build up a 24 hour schedule. It doesn't matter which language you speak as both are International turf's wishing to host multi-lingual games. For FW contact Mirical Bernd at 106245,3431 and you can contact me at 101727,561.

Notice: The Clarion schedule will no longer contain the times for BINGO games currently hosted at the Harlequin games locale. There are many reasons for the change including but not limited to the following: 1. Host's are constantly "running over" their time allotment. 2. The scheduling staff has not received enough e-mail from the hosts in order to "put together" a bingo schedule that even remotely resembles an ACCURATE schedule. 3. This information is easily obtainable from the message section of the in world events library in the community forum. 4. Most importantly, BINGO IS NEARLY ALWAYS BEING PLAYED AT THE HARLEQUIN GAMES LOCALE.

Remember, though, if you are planning to host bingo at a turf location, please e-mail the scheduling staff at 101727,561 so we can post it in the Kymer Clarion. Of course you don't have to, but it most likely will help your turnout and is a lot cheaper than paying some fool to run a macro all day <g> :-_

Hey - Let's be careful out there !!!. Be seeing you <g>

Desmond Richards Advertising By Desmond Richards Desmond Richards Advertising of WorldsAway has just begun it's services on the web. We have a large amount of space for advertising at our web site. This means that our 'Techie Plan' is now available. For all of our pricing information and more, visit our site at: http://ourworld.compuserve.com/homepages/p_underwood/desmond.htm If you would like to include a picture in your advert at our web site we have a few rules. Picture can be no larger than 390 x 250 Secondly, please make sure that the advert is no larger than 25k. This is to make sure our space on the server doesn't fill up too easily. Although this is not a necessity we would prefer you sending your image to us either as a .gif or a .jpg file. This makes it easier for us. If you would like to add any text underneath the advert it costs 5T per 35 words. We look forward to hearing from you.
