

ATTACHMENT 5: Conversation with Crydias...*CONVERSATION WITH CRYDIAS GOLDEN KNIGHT

In two scenes from the transcript files (on Friday Dec. 10, 1999 WAT) of Lumi after he had asked Crydias Golden Knight by ESP mail who had mainly been involved in continuing the Smilph Unselfishness.

1ST SCENE: MEETING AS GHOSTS

<system>: Entering Locale: Rakkaus

Crydias Golden Knight (by ESP): It was VelvetKitty, Mugsy, MountainShadow, MoonShadow and I. I'm so glad the aliens like their turf. <grin>

Lumi (by ESP): Great work!

Crydias Golden Knight (by ESP): thank you so much. I'm so glad, sure wish I wouldn't have missed the aliens. will they be back?

Lumi (by ESP): I'm sure they will.

Crydias Golden Knight (by ESP): I hope so, would love to meet them. Keep me informed if you find out please <grin>

Lumi (by ESP): we really should organise some continuity to the event back then. It all started so wonderfully... Would be a shame if there weren't a "next episode."

Crydias Golden Knight (by ESP): that is how I feel also. we need to spread the word. I noticed it is was not in the Dreamscape newspapers anywhere

Lumi (by ESP): yes, the event was quite improvised...

Crydias Golden Knight (by ESP): do you remember what they drank?

Lumi (by ESP): I remember there were no drinks. Guests were wondering it.

Crydias Golden Knight (by ESP): MountainShadow said something about electrons or protons were offered to her.

Lumi (by ESP): I'm sure the English tea that you have on the balcony now will do as well.

Crydias Golden Knight (by ESP): great

Lumi (by ESP): includes a lot of nutritional protons <grin>

Crydias Golden Knight (by ESP): I'll get some drinks from the mage shop with that on them. when folks come up we can give it to them

2ND SCENE: MEETING IN FLESH

<system>: Entering Locale: Kärleken

Lumi: <bow>

Crydias Golden Knight: good to see you

Lumi: Crydias <jump><jump><jump>

Lumi: I thought you were male... don't know why

Crydias Golden Knight: LOL many do until they see me

Lumi: Crydias sounded like it

Crydias Golden Knight: yes

Crydias Golden Knight: it was from the book by David eddings

Lumi: My human has read Eddings a lot

Crydias Golden Knight: a miss spelling and it came out Crydias

Lumi: which book is that?

Crydias Golden Knight: the Seeress Of Kell

Lumi: <changes his Duck head into the Aristocat head> my usual head

Crydias Golden Knight: I like it. looks like me

Lumi: so much stuff! You have had a lot of work with the alien apartment...

Crydias Golden Knight: not bad with the two MS's, VK and Mugsy helping. the two MS's and I started on it one day and VK, Mountain and Mugsy helped finish it the next

Lumi: you must thank all of them

Crydias Golden Knight: I will thank them - we need to get folks up here to see it... wanted to hand out drinks or something with the aliens MO on it so they can have a pressie

Lumi: I really am happy how the alien event turned out... so kind avvies. It could have turned out that way that everything would have disappeared, but there were good folks here

Crydias Golden Knight: I'm so glad. Lets get the event details down and put it in the one or more of the papers... I noticed more names on the turf this is good.

Lumi: YES! let me see...

<system>: You share this turf with smio, sma, Miranda, smiya, smol, smim, VelvetKitty, Androgeny, MoonShadow, MountainShadow, Crydias Golden Knight, Mistletoe-Kringle's Helper, Galaxxi and Mugsy.

Lumi: that's good: a large alien community soon

Crydias Golden Knight: if we don't hold games or events here we should at least get them up here to see it

Lumi: do you want to hear more about the concept and the alien avvies?

Crydias Golden Knight: yes please

Lumi: you can then save the messages for the Dreamscape newspapers

Crydias Golden Knight: great <grin>. please continue

Lumi: NOT ALONE... We are from another world. We are Smilphs, we come from Simuc. We have been travelling through time and space for eons and now we have at last arrived in a new world - Dreamscape. We are a silicon based life form who have the ability to transform ourselves into energy, into electricity. This is how we travel. We have been travelling for a long time. There are no selfish or aggressive genes in our silicone equivalent of DNA. We generally communicate by entering each other's heads and inhabiting one another entirely. We have encountered many species, some of which are joint species who survive by the relationship between symbiant and host. Other species we have observed have parasitic relationships with other species. Others are independent, like ourselves, and these new creatures who inhabit Dreamscape. We are a peaceful and loving species - Space is vast and for the most part unpopulated - In space there is no-one to love - We have been lonely - We are ever curious... Do you want to hear about the alien characters, Crydias?

Crydias Golden Knight: yes please

Lumi: Sma - Sma is small, Sma is young and full of youthful spirit. Sma is mischievous, Sma is childlike. It was Sma's idea to have a party. Sma is lots of fun. Sma is a like a babbling brook. Smim - Smim is cynical and has wry wit and a love of seeing the funny side of life - he loves paradox and irony. Smim is clumsy and jocular. He has a big heart and a loud laugh. Smim is like a jolly old oak tree. Smea - Smea is analytical and has great insight into the emotions of others. She is empathetic and seeks always to understand the motivations of those around her. Smea is like perfectly balanced scales, she is calm waters. Smoll - Smoll is shy and quiet. Smoll in in her own world. Smoll prefers to be wave not particle. Smoll is self contained. Smoll is like the deepest lake in the world. Smiya - Smiya is very old, too old to remember how old. She is as wise as the universe and as beautiful in her wisdom. She is mother and father to the world. She is like the ocean. She will cease to be matter entirely soon and will move to the next stage of being.

Crydias Golden Knight: aahhhh

Lumi: ahhh? you liked Smiya?

Crydias Golden Knight: If she will move to the next of being that will be great<grin>

Lumi: she's very focused on doing that <grin>... the final alien: Smibs - Smibs is the organiser. She is sensible. She is responsible. She likes to sort things out. She is like a rock.... Smibs looked after the quests too during the reception. Smea wanted to share the apartment with everyone in Kymer, Dreamscape..

Crydias Golden Knight: yes that is what MoonShadow said

Lumi: of course, as you can read from their nature, everyone of the aliens expected only good from that and so it happened! they were so happy

Crydias Golden Knight: he was going to get folks up here as soon as they left but his human form had many things in real world that took him away from it

Lumi: yes, humans are a nuisance that way sometimes

Crydias Golden Knight: yes the RW is a nuisance I think

Lumi: Miranda - one of the new inhabitants here... She joined on the 2nd coming of the aliens and was driving for revolution last time I met her here. She calls it Avatar Action or GROR, Get Rid Of Reality.

Crydias Golden Knight: Do you know any more about her?

Lumi: she wants the avvies to become independent

Crydias Golden Knight: I'd be here 24-7 if I could

Lumi: no hosting for humans!

Crydias Golden Knight: so true

Lumi: it would be nice

Crydias Golden Knight: yes it would

Lumi: But as the aliens well know that we seem to need this symbiant, a human being - or is it a parasite?

Crydias Golden Knight: But this human insists on going to a place called work to pay bills

Lumi: lol

Crydias Golden Knight: hahaha

Lumi: absurd

Crydias Golden Knight: and requires a thing called sleep, (I don't know)

Crydias Golden Knight: may I take our picture? And please let me get the information you just told me of the aliens.

Lumi: sure! with pleasure. Do I look good?

Crydias Golden Knight: you do look handsome

Lumi: Do I need any powder? That's human in me speaking! <grin>

Crydias Golden Knight: ahahhaaa yes but a very great human <grin>

Lumi: At any street corner the feeling of absurdity can strike any avatar in the face... No... At any street corner the human feeling can strike any avatar in the face.

Crydias Golden Knight: ahahaaa

Lumi: hehee

Crydias Golden Knight: so true

Lumi: that would suit Avatar Action. Miranda will like that

Lumi: cheeeeeeeeeeeeeese

Crydias Golden Knight: "click"

Lumi: good?

Lumi: I thought I will send this conversation to the humans of the aliens... Is it fine with you?

Crydias Golden Knight: that would be wonderful

Lumi: they will learn then who did the work. I also take a picture of us... <grin>

Crydias Golden Knight: <grin>

Lumi: "click" - great! <relax> Thank you.

Crydias Golden Knight: oopps I didn't mess it up did I? LOL

Lumi: lol - the human feeling again hitting your beautiful, beyond reality avvy face

Crydias Golden Knight: hahaha yes

Crydias Golden Knight: but the human helps us

Lumi: it does - hehee

Crydias Golden Knight: you are so kind dear Lumi

Lumi: it's in my modest nature - hee!

Crydias Golden Knight: that is a very good quality to have. Do you have any ideas of what to do with the turf?

Lumi: hmmm

Crydias Golden Knight: I'm not a gamer and neither are the two MS's

Lumi: I certainly think there should be a 3rd coming of the aliens...

Crydias Golden Knight: oohhh wouldn't that be wonderful! I would love to see them

Lumi: They should perhaps contact you in order to have it better organised? They can anyway announce it to you by ESP AND, if we can get some sci-fi folks involved this could become the central link place to all kinds of Trekkie and other sci-fi material.

Crydias Golden Knight: that would be wonderful. And we could give them a item of something of the event for them to keep if they would like.

Lumi: yes!

Lumi: and I think the tradition of adding people to the turf should continue.

Crydias Golden Knight: Moon wanted to put up a bar here, but hasn't been able to as of this time I see...
Yes, more people!

Lumi: as more people get involved, we get more ideas

Crydias Golden Knight: If we end up with one that can not be trusted is the only spooky part, but we all have to take a chance. And if it gets cleaned out so be it

Lumi: the aliens are too naive to think of these matters

Crydias Golden Knight: there is no way you can trace the burglary to any one. So if it happens we will leave it bare as a reminder or something like that and post it.

Lumi: we avvies - most of us - are not materialists after all

Crydias Golden Knight: this is so true. We are not.

Lumi: great ideas, Crydias

Crydias Golden Knight: I'm so glad you agree

Lumi: if the worst should happen, we leave it as a testament to the others. We'll tell the story of the trusting aliens that met goodness in avvies but all they built was taken down by just a little selfishness in few. BUT it may all also work beautifully.

Crydias Golden Knight: good then we will get as many involved as possible. I don't know how many names will fit on a turf, but we should get as many as possible.

Lumi: I will send all this conversation to the humans of the aliens, if it suits you. I'm sure they will be inspired to make the 3rd coming.

Crydias Golden Knight: Yes it sounds wonderful please send. I'll contact the Kymer papers. There are a few of them. We can let everyone know to look for the 3rd coming!

Lumi: Yes!

Crydias Golden Knight: I sure hope they can come on a day my human doesn't have to go to that place called work!

Lumi: Me too! I'm sorry Crydias, but my human needs to go now...

Crydias Golden Knight: so does mine

Lumi: This time the human has a pleasant meeting with a friend - fortunate!

Crydias Golden Knight: yes it sure is

Lumi: I'll die momentarily for a good purpose this time... not for the human's work. <grin>

Crydias Golden Knight: thank you for giving me the information

Lumi: sure - thank YOU for everything. You add richness to the world.

Crydias Golden Knight: thank you kind sir, I think you add it also. It has been a great adventure.

Lumi: bye - and I wish you and your human a happy weekend

Crydias Golden Knight: bye <grin><wave> to you also kind friend

Lumi: <wave>
